Installation of the new translator television stations on Santa Rosa mountain is expected to be completed, and broadcasting starting early next week, Frank H. Bennett, president of Palm Springs Translator Station, Inc., reports.

NEWS in BRIEF

NEW YORK (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko met today to seek a diplomatic break-through in the bitter Berlin crisis and other critical cold war issues.

The meeting, the first in a proposed series, took place at a lunch given by Rusk in his suite in the Waldorf Towers. The principal purpose, from the Western viewpoint, is to discover whether Russia is sincerely interested in "honorable" negotiations on the explosive issues threatening to shatter world peace.

VILLEFRANCHE DE ROUERGUE, France (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle arrived by train today on a "whistle-stop" tour intended to pacify the poverty-stricken farmers of southern France. De Gaulle's four-day "grass roots" tour will take him through Aveyron, Lozere and Ardeche provinces, three of the poorest in France. He will make 13 speeches.

BLTYHE (UPI) — A Toledo, Ohio, woman was killed Wednesday when a car driven by her sister crashed into a tree 39 miles west of here, the California Highway Patrol reported.

CHP investigators said Katherine Raymond, 67, was killed and Mrs. Edna Snider, 54, also of Toledo, was injured in the crash which occurred when she reached for her purse and lost control of the vehicle.

Charter Proposal Gets Bump from City League

Advocates of a charter form of government for the City of Palm Springs suffered a set-back Wednesday when Dan Wagner, city manager, made public a letter from Richard Carpenter, executive head of the League of California Cities, in which the latter expressed doubt that the change would be advantageous.

"Some of the so-called advantages (of a charter form of city government) are not accurate," Carpenter wrote.

According to Carpenter's belief, other cities which have studied adoption of a charter, have found that they can do almost as much under the general law type of government as they can under the charter type.

Carpenter's letter was in response to a request from Wagner earlier this month following a study by city council of the advantages and disadvantages of a charter plan for Palm Springs. Councilman Kenneth Kirk spork-

Troops in Congo Told Cease-Fire

Terms of Truce Appear Rebuff to UN's Katanga Force

NDOLA, Northern Rhodesia (UPI)—Repeated radio broadcasts beamed to the Congo's "independent" Katanga Province today advised troops on both sides of the battle there that a ceasefire had been arranged.

It was not immediately certain whether word of the agreement reached by Katanga's President Moise Tshombe and U.N. negotiators here was getting through to the troops.

The broadcasts were carried in French by Rhodesia's Federal Broadcasting Corporation at the request of both the United Nations and Tshombe to make sure that all the troops got the news.

Travelers reaching Ndola reported heavy firing in Elisabethville when they left late Wednesday afternoon.

Slap At U.N.

The terms of the cease-fire appeared to be a slap in the face of the U.N. forces which started out a week ago to occupy Elisabethville and end Katanga's "secession" and wound up fighting for their lives.

Tshombe pulled no punches as he blamed the United Nations for the fighting and bloodshed in Katanga. He said the agreement will end the fighting "unless the United Nations launches new aggression... the United Nations must carry the whole responsibility for all the massacres in Katanga."

Blames U.N. Chief

Asked if he thought the United Nations would relieve the U.N. civilian chief in Katanga, Con Cruise O'Brien of Ireland, Tshombe told newsmen: "O'Brien must bear the major responsibility for what has happened. He is responsible for the fact that so many poor Irish boys have been killed uselessly."

Springs Ahead In CD Planning, Wagner Reports

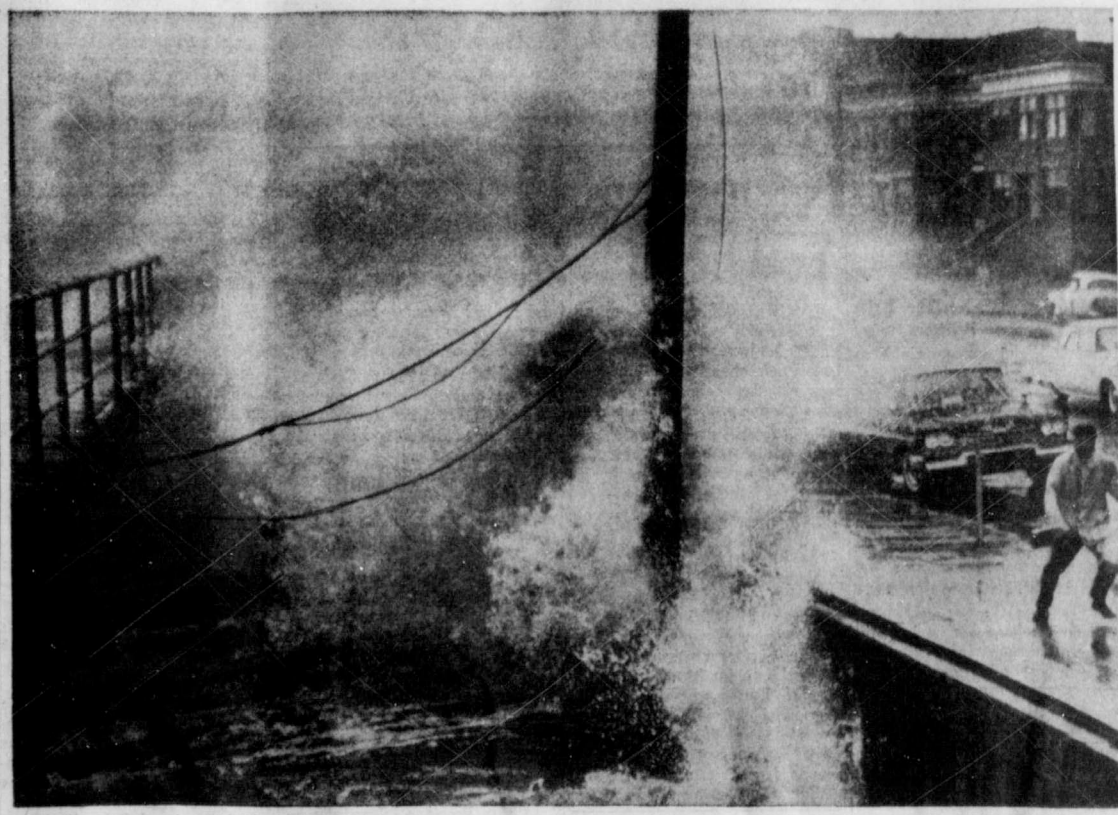

Palm Springs City Manager Daniel Wagner reported today that Palm Springs and "most incorporated areas" in Riverside county are ahead of county planning in schedules for Civil Defense.

Wagner attended a county-wide meeting with CD planners in the San Geronimo Inn at Banning yesterday. The meet was attended by all county supervisors and county CD acting director sheriff Joe Rice. Undersheriff Ben Clark presided at most of the defense planning talks.

A unified schedule of coordinated planning will be sent to each city and city council in the future, Rice said.

ed the study by council when he said that a charter plan would enable the city to raise additional needed revenue. General law cities are limited by state legislation in tax matters. A ceiling of $1 tax per $100 assessed valuation is specified.

General law cities, however, can circumvent this limitation by setting up special tax rates for specific purposes such as pensions, sewage facilities, park and recreation, civil defense, flood protection and others. Carpenter said.

Clay Over East Germany to Show 'Rights'

BERLIN (UPI) — Gen. Lucius Clay flew over Communist East German territory today to the tiny beleaguered American zone enclave of Steinstuecken in a demonstration of Western Allied rights to go anywhere in Berlin.

West Berlin police said Clay, who arrived Tuesday as President Kennedy's representative in Berlin, made a dramatic one-mile flight to Steinstuecken in a U.S. Army helicopter and spent 50 minutes with the area's 200 residents.

He made the flight, the police said, in answer to new Communist harassment of ground traffic to the small enclave. Clay was the first American to visit the area in 10 years.

Steinstuecken is a farm enclave deep in the Soviet zone, but which is a part of Berlin administered from the Zehlendorf district in the American sector.

Clay's helicopter set down in a small field to the surprise and alarm of two middle-aged women who were gathering crops.

Greeted by Residents

One of the women recognized him as a hero of the 1948-49 blockade of Berlin, threw her arms around him and said: "Gott sei dank (thank God). It has been so long since we have seen you."

Residents scattered throughout the streets in search of Mayor Friedrich Reichow, 49, who pedaled furiously back to his office on a bicycle to greet Clay.

West Berlin officials said the Communists in recent days have been barring all West Berliners, including relatives, friends, bill collectors, plumbers, electricians and similar people from Steinstuecken.

However, the Reds have let such persons as midwives, doctors and postmen to go back and forth.

During his visit, Clay assured the Steinstuecken mayor and people that the United States is supporting them against any Communist pressure.

Leaves Amid Cheers

The return flight to Berlin was made without incident. As Clay's helicopter lifted away, he leaned out waving a V-for-victory signal to the waving Steinstuecken residents cheering him off.

Western observers were waiting today to see what use Communist boss Walter Ulbricht would make of the sweeping powers granted him by Communist East Germany's puppet parliament.

New England Hit By Esther Storm

BOSTON (UPI) — Capricious hurricane Esther pounded southern New England with winds and rain today. The Weather Bureau said, however, the storm had slowed down and appeared weakening slightly.

Men, women and children, including President Kennedy's two children, were evacuated on Cape Cod in the face of flood tides. Twelve-foot breakers walloped the coast.

In a midmorning advisory, the Weather Bureau said "hurricane Esther has slowed down and is giving indication of a slight weakening."

The slowdown means that the brunt of the storm will not reach southern Cape Cod until this afternoon, the Weather Bureau said.

Indian Wells Village Sold

INDIAN WELLS — The 100-home Indian Wells Village Development here was sold to the Ralph Young Development Co., at a reported price of approximately $500,000 for the unsold 34 houses.

The project was started by Los Angeles auto dealer Robert Yeakel. Yeakel was killed in a dramatic plane crash in December, 1960, when his plane crashed in the San Bernardino freeway while he was en route to the desert.

Subsequently, the estate was administered by the California Savings and Loan Co., Holiday Realty Co., Palm Desert, was appointed by the finance firm to handle the development project.

AUTO WORKERS VOTE TO END ALL LOCAL STRIKES ON GM

DETROIT (UPI) —The United Auto Workers National General Motors Council voted unanimously today to accept the decision of the union's International Executive Board and end all local strikes against the nation's largest manufacturer.

The 250-member council, which Wednesday night voted to support the local strikes, changed course today under the urging of UAW President Walter P. Reuther.

The council met for less than an hour before returning what the union said was a unanimous vote. In fact, Reuther addressed the

At least 1,000 persons on Cape Cod moved inland or to higher ground.

Nearly five million persons in New England were in the path of the tropical storm which packed winds up to 115 miles an hour.

At least one death was attributed to the hurricane, Fred Towne, 45, Cleveland, N.Y., was killed when his truck skidded on the rain-slicked Massachusetts Turnpike at Chicopee, Mass., and plunged off a railroad bridge.

The hurricane lashed eastern Long Island, N.Y., and barreled into New England on the 23rd anniversary of one of the worst hurricanes in history. The hurricane of 1938 killed 682 persons and caused $500 million damage.

Taken to Air Base

President Kennedy's children and their cousins were driven in a five-car cavalcade from the Kennedy family homes at Hyannis Port to the air base, President and Mrs. Kennedy were in Washington.

The President's father, Joseph P. Kennedy and his niece, Ann Gargan, chose to remain in Hyannis Port to ride out the storm.

Tides as much as 12 feet above normal were predicted along the southern coast of Cape Cod from which most vacationers already had departed following the Labor Day weekend.

The hurricane was the first to be discovered by a satellite. The storm first was detected by satellite Tios III earlier this month as it was gaining momentum over the Middle Atlantic.

As it zeroed in on New England, the hurricane battered eastern Long Island. The town of Montauk on Long Island was cut off and waves crashed across parts of the summer resort of Fire Island.

Tachevah Flood Project Gets One Approval

The U.S. Senate Appropriations Committee has recommended an appropriation of $50,000 to complete the final design of the Tachevah Flood Control project in Palm Springs.

The project, which has been studied by the U.S. Corps of Engineers, will carry flood waters from the Tachevah dry falls directly through the center of Palm Springs and dump them into the Whitewater wash spreading grounds.

The measure was sponsored in the previous congress by U. S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel, who obtained authorization for the flood control work.

The project will run almost $2,000,000.

Enrollment in School Leaps

Enrollment in the Palm Springs Unified School District at the close of the first week, Wednesday, stood at 3,859, an increase of 200 over the same period in 1960.

A breakdown in enrollment figures shows 2,140 in grades kindergarten through sixth grade, a total of 610 in grades seven and eight, and 1,109 in grades nine through 12. Individual elementary school enrollments were as follows:

Agua Caliente, 276; Cahuilla, 422; Cathedral City, 400; Cielo Vista, 346; Desert Hot Springs, 180; Katherine Finchy, 381; Frances S. Stevens, 135.

U. N. Seat Debate Set In Assembly

Backstage Effort For Dag Temporary Successor Moving

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—The question of a U.N. seat for Communist China comes up for initial debate today when the General Assembly's Steering Committee takes up the agenda.

While the 21-member committee met and the assembly was in adjournment until Friday, backstage efforts went ahead to have the world parliament name an acting secretary general until a successor to Dag Hammarskjold be chosen.

An informal 12-nation committee with wide geographic distribution scheduled an afternoon meeting to draft a resolution asking the Security Council to recommend Hammarskjold's successor. It would propose that the assembly meanwhile select an acting secretary general.

Likely Choice

No name was to be mentioned in the projected resolution, but Burmese Ambassador U. Thant appeared the most likely candidate for the job. The drafting group comprised representatives of Ireland, Norway, Yugoslavia, the United Arab Republic, Liberia, India, Burma, Iraq, Argentina, Brazil, Mexico and Indonesia.

The Russians were reported to have told Thant they would insist on eventual institution of Nikita S. Khrushchev's "troika" system of three secretaries general, each with a veto.

The countries backing the proposed resolution hoped to persuade Khrushchev—perhaps by ambassadorial approach in Moscow—to agree to their idea.

A Moscow communique Wednesday night said Russia would insist on the troika system but did not make clear whether the Kremlin demanded that it be put into operation immediately.

The Steering Committee, comprising Assembly President Mongi Slim of Tunisia, the chairmen of the seven standing committees and the 13 assembly vice presidents, approves items for the assembly agenda and recommends their distribution to the various committees for debate.

Both the Western powers and Russia have asked inclusion of an item on Red China. There were reports that both would insist on immediate consideration of their items in the assembly, without prior committee debate.

Resort Reports

Mili Jackson
manager of the Desert Ho Hotel, is deep in preparations for a quasi-surprise party which will welcome some of her first guests in October. Mili, former show writer from Chicago, returned here earlier this month after a summer-long vacation with her mother in the Windy City.

Palm Desert's
chamber manager Don McNelly official greeter for the growing resort town, is ticking off the remaining days of his Indian duty, as he makes plans for the chamber's eighth annual Homecoming party. McNelly says the western party will offer the Old West with electricity.

Home from another visit to Ensenada, Mexico, is Ralph Gordon of LaQuinta. Before leaving on his latest trip Ralph enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Gwen Willis and her son Randy from Gardena.

A Gentleman
named Bud Line, who is associated with the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, has written in questioning the accuracy of a report in The Desert Sun that 80,000 tons of materials would be moved up Mt. San Jacinto by helicopter. We admit that sounds like a lot of weight, but reporter Fred Weigel insists engineers on the tramway project report the total "at between 70,000 and 80,000 tons. They're to bring in larger helicopters soon," Weigel says.

P. D. Realtor Nominated to C.R.E.A. Board

PALM DESERT — The Palm Desert Board of Realtors today joined the Palm Springs and Coachella Valley realty boards in asking that Palm Desert realtor and developer Ted Smith be nominated to the California Real Estate Association board of directors.

Smith, if nominated and approved, would join four other nominees from Southern California and five from northern California on the board of the state-wide realtors group.

Smith has been active in civic affairs, including the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Board.

Kennedy Will Speak To U.N. Next Monday

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy will speak to the United Nations General Assembly Monday, probably at a morning session, the White House announced today.

Kennedy will spend Sunday and Monday nights in New York City in connection with his visit. He hopes to inspire the United Nations with a new sense of purpose and vitality.

The President plans to reassert in firm terms solid U.S. support for the international organization as now constituted.

He felt such a restatement of American support was needed following the death of Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold and subsequent Russian objections to appointment of a single successor.

The Soviets want a three-headed, or trioka, secretariat representing the Western, Communist and neutral blocs, thus giving the Kremlin veto power over U.N. actions.

According to Press Secretary Pierre Salinger, Kennedy and his wife will leave Washington Friday morning for their home at Hyannis Port, Mass.

Late Sunday afternoon Kennedy will fly to New York and set up temporary headquarters at the Carlyle Hotel.

Salinger said the United Nations had arranged its schedule to hear the President Monday morning "unless something unforeseen interferes." There still was some question about how much time will be spent between now and Monday in eulogizing Hammarskjold.

In any event, the chief executive will remain in New York until about midday Tuesday. He expects to confer there with former Argentine President Frondizi who originally was scheduled to see Kennedy in Washington next Tuesday.

Mrs. Twist Services Set Friday

Private funeral services for Mrs. Marjorie Braude Twist, 41, who lived at 824 Chia Road, will be held at 10 a.m. Friday in the Wilfong and Son chapel.

The Rev. Frederick A. Barnhill, pastor of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church, will conduct the services, assisted by Rabbi Joseph Hurwitz of Temple Isaiah. Rabbi Hurwitz, a family friend, will participate in honor of Mrs. Twist's desire to promote inter-faith understanding.

A native of New York, Mrs. Twist had lived in California approximately 23 years and in Palm Springs more than three years.

Survivors include her husband, Dr. Dwight E. Twist; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara E. Williams, Houston, Tex.; a son, Charles Russell Twist, Palm Springs; a sister, Mrs. Franklin Harwood, Bayside, Long Island, N. Y., and her mother, Mrs. Sadie Braude, Bayside, Long Island.

The family has requested memorial gifts be made to the Palm Springs American Cancer Society. Mrs. Barbara Hostetter will receive contributions.

Interment will be in Hillside Cemetery, Redlands.

Check Suspect Was 'Relieved' When Arrested

A 22-year-old man wanted by the Los Angeles county sheriff's office on a bogus check charge said he was relieved when an alert Palm Springs police officer apprehended him at 2:30 a.m. today.

James Monroe Guy said "I'm glad it's over," when he was taken into custody by patrolmen Lee Nesbitt, Nesbitt, who spotted a car Guy reportedly drove, made the stop at Indian Ave. and Palm Canyon Drive.

Los Angeles county officers advised Palm Springs Guy was sought on charges of passing $807 worth of bogus checks. Officers from Los Angeles, who will come to pick up Guy, will return Walker Patterson Thacher here. Thacher is sought on charges of passing $1,052.11 worth of bogus checks in the fall of 1960.

Military Muzzle Probe Now Quiet

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Senate inquiry into charges that military officers have been muzzled in their anti-Communist views shaped up today as a quiet-keyed study that has been promised Defense Department cooperation.

A Defense Department spokesman, asked about the Pentagon's attitude toward the Senate Armed Service Committee inquiry, said: "We have been cooperating fully with the committee, and will continue to do so."

The Senate group voted Wednesday to "study and appraise" Defense Department programs for alerting troops and the public to dangers of communism in the world. There were strong indications the inquiry will be carried out in the calmest possible manner.

Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., was expected to name a subcommittee for the study later today.

The tone of the inquiry could be read in the comments and actions of committee members. The committee studiously skirted the label of "investigation."

Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., author of most of the charges that anti-Communist views of military leaders had been suppressed, said he was satisfied with the committee's action on his proposal for an investigation.

The "study and appraise" language, he said, would have the same effect.

Other committee members, however, said the change in language and the committee's discussion behind closed doors, make it clear that there was no desire for an investigation that would disrupt the Pentagon during a time of international unrest.

The committee voted 15-1 for the amended Thurmond resolution. Sen. E.L. Bartlett, D-Alaska, said he voted against the resolution because it carried the implication that the armed services should educate the public about the cold war.

TV Association Convention Set For Spa City

Palm Springs will be the site Oct. 6 and 7 of the convention of the California Community Television Association, which will attract many leaders of the industry, both from California and nationally, John S. Muir Jr. vice president of the Palm Springs Television Co., said today.

Headquarters for the convention at the El Mirador Hotel.

Following a lunch-dinner luncheon at El Mirador Friday noon, the first business session will be held from 1:30 to 5 p.m. Business sessions are scheduled Saturday morning starting at 9 a.m. Dean DeVoe of Barstow, national director, will preside.

Technical seminars will be held at the offices of the Palm Springs Television Co. Friday afternoon and Saturday morning and afternoon.

At 6:30 p.m. Friday cocktails followed by a chuck wagon dinner will be hosted by Muir at his home, 261 Hermosa Place.

The event will close Saturday noon at the CCVT luncheon to be addressed to prominent speakers.

During the convention applications for membership from four large systems will be acted upon. Several manufacturers will have samples of their newest equipment on hand and will conduct seminars for officials and technicians of community television corporations.

The California Community Television Association is a regional group within the National Community Television Association and among national board officials expected are Bill Dalton, Glenn Flinn, Charles Clements, Frank Thompson, as well as state directors DeVoe and Leon Papernow of Beverly Hills.

Desert Nature Course Seen in Palm Desert

PALM DESERT — Dr. Ernest Tinkham, desert naturalist, educator and illustrator, will offer a three-unit course on Nature Study of the Desert from 7 to 10 p.m. Mondays in the Palm Desert Elementary School if the required 20 persons enroll for the class.

The course, offered each spring and fall since the spring of 1959, is an extension course of San Diego State College.

Dr. Tinkham, who recently returned from a three-week expedition into southern Mexico, has new colored slides in his library of more than 3,000 slides on desert life.

The course will cover 15 deserts, with study of plants, birds, and animals. Live specimens, including the famed road-runner, will be used in the classroom.

Planned for the course is an overnight weekend trip to the Kelso Dunes for study of dune life.

The course is planned for both general public enrollment and for upper division credit work for valley area teachers. Dr. Tinkham announced. Enrollment fee is $30.

Ladies' Night In Hot Springs

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Desert Hot Springs Rotarians, Rotary Anns, and guests met for a Ladies' Night party in the Highlander Restaurant Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hulbert showed colored slides of their recent tour to Hong Kong for the evening program. Approximately 80 persons attended the prime rib dinner, presided over by Rotary president Ted Spellaza.

Jr. Optimists In Palm Desert

PALM DESERT — The Optimist Club here is forming a junior branch and looking for more young members. President Charlie Valentino announced today.

Already, about eight members of Junior Optimists of Palm Desert are set for the new organization, but about 20 are needed, he said. All young men between the ages of 10 and 16 interested in joining should contact by telephone Scott Hanson at the Silver Spur Ranch.

Ten new members were to be inducted in the senior club today by Lt. Gov. Bob Saucke of Zone 7, District 14, Optimists International.

Marion Davies Near Death; In Last Rites

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Marion Davies, former star of the silent and early talkie eras of motion pictures, was given the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church Wednesday and reported near death.

Doctors at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, where she has been a patient since the middle of May, listed her condition today as "poor."

A church spokesman confirmed Miss Davies, 61, had been given the last rites. She was reported under heavy sedation.

One hospital attendant said, "It may be a week, or sooner. She's getting wonderful care."

She underwent surgery on June 7 for malignant osteomyelitis of the jaw and appeared to be recovering, but 12 days later she fell in her room and broke a bone in her left leg.

Capt. Horace Brown, her husband since 1951, has stayed by her bedside much of the time during her illness, and Joseph Kennedy, father of the President, had three New York specialists flown to the hospital in June for consultation.

In the silent film days, Miss Davies played in many hits for Cosmopolitan Pictures, a William Randolph Hearst enterprise. These included "The Fair Coed," "Tillie the Toiler" and "Yolanda."

When sound came in she played in "The Floradora Girl," "It's A Wise Child," "Blondie of the Follies," "Ever Since Eve" and several others.

Frank Bogert to Attend Banquet

Mayor Frank Bogert of Palm Springs is among five mayors of Riverside and San Bernardino county cities who will attend the banquet honoring Mayor Edward V. Dales of Riverside, scheduled for Sept. 28 at the Mission Inn in the county seat.

State Attorney General Stanley Mosk will be the speaker. Radio station KACE and a Riverside citizen's committee is sponsoring the event.

on the SUNNY SIDE

with Sue Raymond

While Ish Kabibble was telling fish tales to diners at North Shore Beach and Yacht Club, two youngsters were outside fishing under the light of the moon.

I don't mean to imply that the good life that Ray Ryan or North Shore clubbers lead rubs off on fishlife, but the corvina caught by the young sportsmen were baited by New York steak!

Rumors that Chief of Police Gus Kettmann and his chief, Georgia are vacationing in Chicago are true. It's also true that the chief's gal Monday thru Friday, Cathy Siess, is vacationing.

But, don't take this opportunity to hoard your parking nickels. Cant Orest Johnson is acting chief and around to collect dollars from nickel savers.

Before returning to count Palm Canyon revenue, Chief Gus will attend a five day Police Chief convention in Montreal.

Speaking of the law, Abdulla Norman (known as Norman by Signature Room devotees) got written-up by the enforcers because he was so honest.

The write-up was in a citation book and was issued after a policeman, who stopped Norman for speeding, asked him if he had been previously cited. Norman answered honestly, "No, you never caught me before."

Elaine Ehrlich is at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital recovering from major surgery and hubby Jack is nearby at L.A. Biltmore. Elaine will soon join Jack for a few days vacation before returning to their Twin Palms Drive home.

Speaking of surgery, I think Minnette Haber would rather have had a sympathy - evoking operation than have the broken toe she's sporting. Trouble is, she's not sporting her broken toe obviously and looks as if she's limping for laughs.

For cosmetic reasons, Dr. Norm bandaged his wife with invisible tape, which supports the toe without supporting Minnette's story of her trip.

Returning home from her first day of kindergarten at Katherine Finchy, Andrea Fosterstedt informed her parents that she had learned to read. Said Mommy (Dr. Lucille Fosterstedt), "Read something to me." Answered Andreas, "I didn't learn to read out loud."

Barney and Shirley Miller had their hands and Marion Way house full when they were visited by Shirley's eight-year-old niece, Lori Adler of Los Angeles, and the Frank Kieffers of Saratoga with their four children.

Sharing alike, the Kieffers lent two of their children to the Millers while they stayed at the Occitillo with another two.

Add up the Miller's two, Jay and Gay, and the five visitors and you have a picture of the seven youngsters who spent a day at North Shore Beach, while taking water skiing lessons from Aca-pulco's top-rated Mundo Villegas.

Eileen (Mrs. James) Oliver and nine and eight-year-old Carol and Jimmy caught up on visits with Eileen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Case of Melrose, Mass., while Dr. James Oliver caught up on his fishing in Northern Canada.

When the doctor joined his family in Melrose, he was driving a new car (picked up in Detroit) and wearing a red face (not because he hadn't caught trout, but because it was his first chance this year to soak up the sunshine's Vitamin D).

The family continued vacationing together, and on the motor trip homeward saw the Hamble-tonian (harness racing) in Illinois; visited doc's family in Green Bay, Wis.; and toured Yellowstone National Park.

When Molly Kenaston returned to her Indian Wells home after summering in Santa Monica, she was accompanied by her daughter, Jackie Laykin and grand-daughter, Kelly. Jackie and Kelly plan a near-future, three - month visit to Hawaii.

Molly's youngest daughter, Ginny Durant, who was noticeable by her presence at Deep Well Playhouse last season, and spent the summer instructing horseback at Camp Roosevelt, has turned in cues for cotton and sports for syringes. She'll attend Lawton Medical School this fall.

Molly's son, John Durant, who attends St. Mary's College - High School near Berkeley, has been elected president of his junior class. This is a third for John, who was president of his freshman and sophomore class.

WSCS Will Start Meets Next Month

Mrs. Stone Wright, president of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Desert Hot Springs Community Methodist Church, announced that the society will hold meetings at the church on the second Thursday of each month, commencing Oct. 12. Meetings will be called to order at 11 a.m. with a potluck lunch following at 12:15 p.m. At each meeting, a varied program will be presented.

Mrs. Walter Klocke, vice president and chairman of the program committee, announced that the programs for October, November and December will serve a dual purpose. Attention will be focused on the Christian concept of God.

Mrs. Archie Matson, wife of the church pastor, will speak at the October meet on "The Spirit is Lord." Mrs. Elsie Ream will be in charge of devotionals.

Mrs. Klocke will address the November meeting on "Jesus Christ, the Light of the World" and will discuss the World Council of Churches convention, which meets in New Delhi, India, during November. Two thousand delegates, representing 175 million Christians throughout the world, are expected to attend.

At the December meet, Mary Sinclair Taylor, former organist of the church, will present a program of Christmas music.

New Accessory

Looking for a new and different fashion accessory?

Here's an idea - just substitute new flare-red facial tissues for the white ones you usually carry in your purse or handbag for quick touch-ups away from home.

Red, of course, is a dramatic color and one that complements any wardrobe shade - pink, black, white, neutrals or wood tones.

Whether you use flare-red tissues in your home, or as an away-from-home accessory, they're sure to attract attention and be a fashionable conversation piece.

Newlyweds Are at Home in Riverside

After a coastal honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Arthur are at home in Riverside, where the bridegroom is a student at University of California at Riverside.

The bride is the former Mary Jo Stephens, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Stephens of this city, who also attended UCR and UCLA, after graduation from Palm Springs High School.

She wore a beige gown and carried yellow and gold flowers, for the wedding ceremony, which was on Aug. 17 at St. John's Episcopal Church in San Bernardino. Colleen Patrick was her attendant as she said her vows before Father Hammond, a family friend of the groom. Dave Ulrich acted as best man.

The son of H. C. Arthur of Riverside and Mrs. Edith Honrath of San Bernardino, the bridegroom is an honor student in his senior year at UCR and received the Gordon S. Watkins award for scholarship for this year. He has served three years in the Signal Corps with the rank of sergeant.

Diners Progress Around Course at Indian Wells

Indian Wells stick - through-the-summer residents ended a series of potluck dinners with a progressive dinner which began with cocktails and hors d'oeuvres at Beth Fisher's golf course home-with-a-view.

For the main course, clubbers headed across the course to Putt and Charlie Corbett's Iroquois Drive home and sipped red wine while dining on Italian spaghetti.

After dinner, guests moved down the street to Ted and Lorraine Morgan's for dessert and after-dinner drinks.

Following the progressive meal, the group adjourned to the Indian Wells clubhouse to welcome in the season.

Present with the hosts were Eddie and Jeanne Susalla, Bill and Gloria Newell, Bill and Katie Juvonen, Loretta and Tip Wolford, Jo and Howard Kaufman, Dick and Frances Marsh and Pat Carroll.

Berets are bent on big business for fall and winter - whatever their angle. Clothes plunge deep into fashion, big and little, set up with height, brimming up or down. Brims have lots of sweep and slouch.

PASSERSBY TURNED to look at this foursome of Blythe clubwomen, when they appeared on Palm Springs streets. They stopped here on their way home from Banning, where they had acted as hostesses for the DeAnza District meeting of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. Their clothes, which they had made themselves, are in observance of the 50th anniversary of the Women's Improvement Club of Blythe. From left, they are Mrs. Joe Glider, Mrs. Aubrey Seale, Mrs. Robert Brookmeier and Mrs. Robert Dunagan. (Larry V. Jaekle Photo)

Checkerboard Fluff of Gelatin

Checkerboard fluff is served with a low-calorie whipped topping. Prepare 1 (3-ounce) package of raspberry-flavored gelatin and 1 package of lime-flavored gelatin according to package directions. Chill each in an 8-by-8-by-2 inch pan. Cut into 1-inch squares. Arrange alternate gelatins in parfait glasses and spoon over this topping: Mix 1/2 cup each of instant nonfat dry milk and well-chilled grapefruit in bowl. Whip with rotary beater 3 to 4 minutes or until soft peaks form. Add 2 tablespoons of lemon juice. Continue whipping until stiff peaks form. Gradually add 1/4 cup of sugar. Serves 6 to 8.

If humid weather has left closets and contents with a dank mildewy aroma, hang clothes to air and scrub the interior of the closet with a strong baking soda solution—a cup of soda per pail of hot water.

Chi Theta Member Visits National Headquarters of Beta Sigma Phi in St. Louis

"They know all about us . . . what we are doing . . . everything," reported Mrs. Pete Breakey as she told members of Chi Theta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, about her summer visit to the International offices of Beta Sigma Phi in St. Louis.

She went on to describe the large wall map of the United States where a pin designates the location of every chapter, with Southern California almost solid with pins. On the world map, pins marked chapters in isolated, out-of-the-way places and small islands as well as the well-populated areas, she said.

Mrs. Breakey told sister members that the officials at headquarters expressed pleasure at having Zaddie Bunker as an honorary member, her activities being particularly appropriate for the "Live with Wings" theme for 1960-61.

The interesting report was made when Chi Theta held its September meeting at the home of its president, Mrs. John Down.

Mrs. Carl Jackson and Mrs. Harry Estel presented the cultural program on the subject of oratory. They explained rhetoric as applied in oratory, the kinds of speeches which fall in the category, and gave readings of the "Gettysburg Address" and the "Sermon on the Mount" as classic examples. A general discussion followed.

Resignations of two very popular members, Mrs. Anthony Janulis and Mrs. Jack Porter, were accepted with regret. Both women recently moved to the San Diego area. Mrs. Al Patane was appointed secretary, Mrs. Ralph Hammer, social chairman, and Mrs. Wayne Kizer, historian, to fill vacancies in office.

Mrs. Hammer displayed the decorations her committee is making for the November breakfast at the Riviera Hotel in Palm Springs. A workshop will be conducted in early November to put on the finishing touches.

Mission Council to Breakfast

A large attendance of representatives is expected from the eighty-five chapters in Riverside, Imperial, San Bernardino and San Diego counties when Mission California Council of Beta Sigma Phi sorority opens the 1961-62 activities with a breakfast at Mission Valley Country Club in San Diego on Sept. 24 at 10 a.m. The founder, Walter W. Ross and his wife of St. Louis, will be special guests.

South Bay Council will host the breakfast with Mrs. Ray Sutton of Xi Zeta Iota chapter, Chula Vista, as chairman of the affair. A colorful western theme, "Along El Camino Real," will be carried out with a mission scene decorating the head table and hostesses wearing costumes from the old west. Sunbonnets, covered wagons and cowboys will lend atmosphere to the occasion.

The invocation will be given by Mrs. Fred Hackenburg of Xi Iota Nu, Chula Vista. Mrs. Robert Tussing, president of South Bay Council, will welcome Ross, who will address the group. A history will be given by Mrs. Irwin Falk of Xi Zeta Iota, Chula Vista, and entertainment during the breakfast will be provided by Art McFarland.

Mrs. John Allchin of Coachella, president of Mission California Council, will conduct the business meeting and will present sorority guests, Mr. and Mrs. Galal Kernahan of Escondido. Kernahan will speak on Civil Defense.

Sorority members and guests attending from this area will be Mona Cameron, Almeda Sloan, Andra Crowell, Marge Hayes and Dorothy Read of Palm Springs and guests Louise Crooks of Oatman, Iowa and Mary Holt of Palm Springs; Ruby Hammer, Eleanor Donahue, Eleanor Janulis and Opal Porter of Cathedral City.

Parents of Collegians Please Note

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI) — Memo to parents of college freshmen:

Expect your son or daughter to develop some homesickness during the first weeks and maybe months at school.

Expect also to hear from son or daughter regularly at first. But as the pressures of college life increase, each will become a less reliable correspondent.

These are among hints in a parents' guide produced by the University of Rochester.

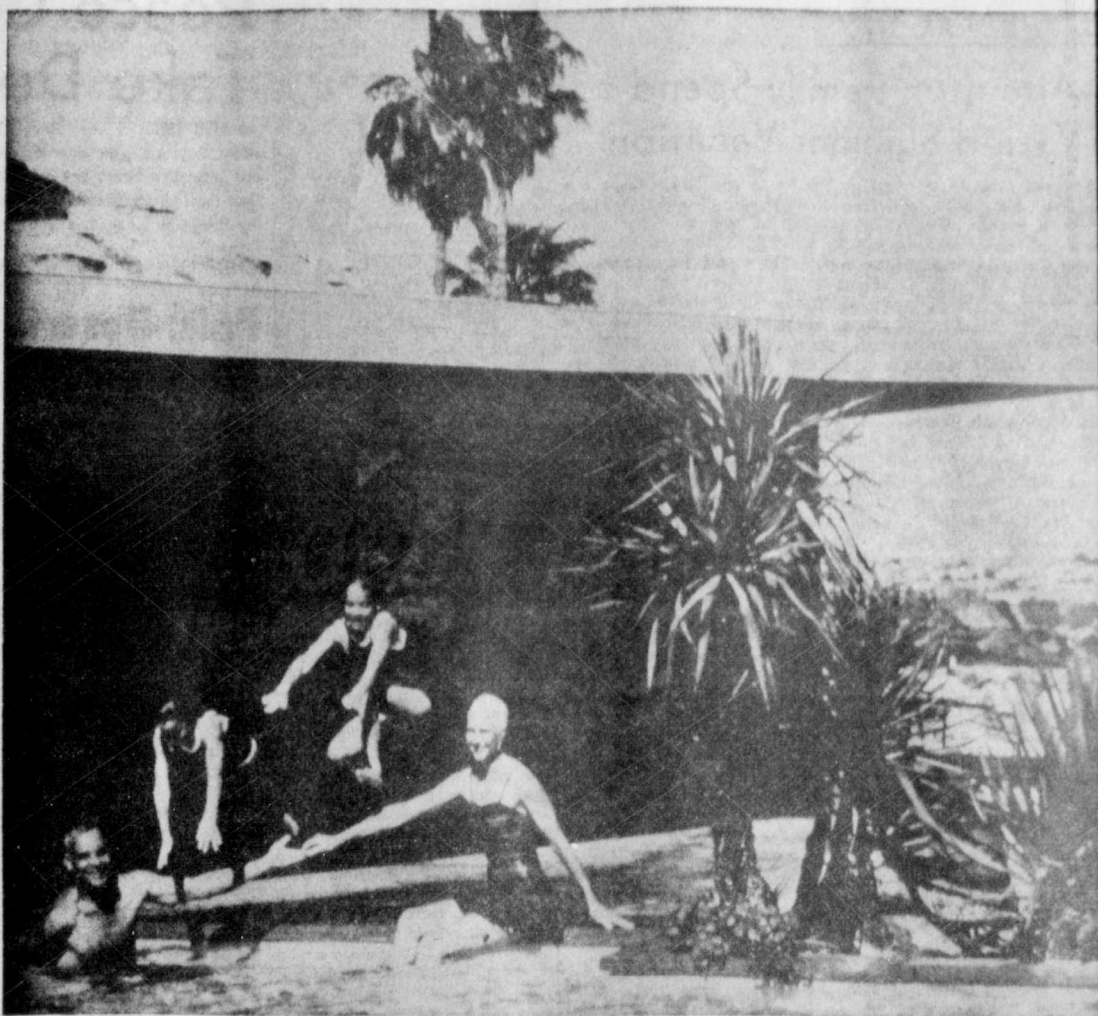

Other hints:
—Some freshmen are slow starters. Remember that they have the whole year to reach the minimum record. In nearly all cases they attain higher averages in June than in January.

—Don't be concerned if your youngster has not made a vocational choice or decided on a field of specialization. He has at least until the middle of his sophomore year to make this decision, and counseling is available to him.

—Don't be surprised if your son or daughter changes his educational and vocational objective during his college experience. Fully half of the undergraduates make at least one such change as they develop intellectually.

—If your youngster changes his mind as he fumbles for his place in college and in the world, he will need your sympathy and understanding. Little good can be done by forcing a student to continue in a program which he finds distasteful.

The guide urged parents to "inform us about anything that might help us to work more effectively with your son or daughter." It noted that parental cooperation is "invaluable to us as we try to help each student to have a profitable and happy college experience."

Everything Backwards at Meeting

Members were dressed upside-down, inside-out and every which way, as they greeted their hostess Mrs. Arthur Cray with a big "hello," at the Backwards Party, which was a season opener for Tau Sigma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

At this topsy turvy affair refreshments were served first thing with the hostess offering angel food cake topped with strawberries and whipped cream.

Tau Sigma's treasury benefited, when members auctioned off gifts they had purchased this summer, with the outside wrapping the only clue to the contents.

After Mary Nugent and Jean Lather presented the evening's program titled, "Introductions and Invitations," the meeting at the backwards party was called to order by adjournment.

President Pat Wahlberg announced that two vacancies on the executive board were filled this summer, when Lillie Milkie and Eva Roach assumed duties of historian and corresponding secretary, respectively. Marion Weigel was appointed chairman of the Rush Party to be held Oct. 10.

Taking a look ahead, two major ways and means projects were discussed, a late November fashion show to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis fund and Christmas card sales, which will be conducted by the membership.

Among those present when the meeting adjourned with the call to order and a farewell "hello" were Mmes. Andra Crowell, Charlene Hicks, Rita Jones and Almendra Slone.

FAMOUS SURGEON Dr. Haskell Cohen of Denver, and his wife cut the cake which celebrated his 86th birthday and their wedding anniversary at a dinner at Palm Springs Riviera. (Candid by Carroll)

Nationally Noted Surgeon Celebrates Birthday Here

Fifty-two close friends from all over the western United States congregated in Palm Springs at the Riviera this past weekend to help Dr. Haskell Cohen and his wife Birdie, of Denver, celebrate his 86th birthday. It was also the 18th wedding anniversary for the Cohens. The Cohens and their friends have been celebrating his birthday in Palm Springs for many years and this is the second year at the Riviera.

One of the foremost surgeons of his time, Dr. Cohen has retired from active surgery, but still keeps office hours for consultations one day a week and other surgeons and their patients travel to Denver to get his diagnosis on difficult cases.

In an amazing career that started out when the young doctor, fresh out of the University of New York and Bellevue Medical College in New York City hung out his shingle in the frontier town of Victor in the Cripple Creek district in Colorado, taking care of 2500 gold miners and their families. Here in the early 1900s, the doctor found himself in the middle of fighting that broke out between the Miner's Association and the Western Association of Miners, a fight that finally called out the Colorado militia. During those days he had as his partner Dr. Harry G. Thomas, father of news commentator Lowell Thomas. It was here, too, that he built his own hospital and obtained his first surgical experience.

He went abroad to study with the great surgeons of Berlin and

Fostvedt Family Completes 6500-Mile Vacation Trip

Dr. Lucille Fostvedt and her husband Dr. Gerald Fostvedt and their four children have returned to their Avenida Caballeros home, after completing a three week motor trip during which they covered 6500 miles.

Their travels took them to Hoover Dam, Salt Lake, Jackson Hole, Grand and Yellowstone National Parks, North and South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Carlsbad Caverns and the Ozarks. In her native state of North Dakota, Dr. Lucille visited many relatives, and in Chetek, Wisc., Dr. Gerald visited his family.

In Springfield, Ill., the children, Karsten, Craig, Siri and Andrea, who are all Katherine Finchy students, enjoyed a close-up view of American history when they toured the Civil War Memorials.

Incidentally, Dr. Lucille is probably one of the busiest women in Palm Springs. Besides maintaining a full-time practice she is president of Coachella Valley Panhellenic Assn.; 1st vice president of St. Paul's Episcopal Church Service League; service chairman

CATHEDRAL CITY

Aitchison Family Spend Varied Summer Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aitchison and boys Jim, John and Tom spent the summer in and out of the desert. Following the close of school Jim was in Los Angeles for six weeks attending Chouinard Art Institute. Then he and his brother John joined the campers at Oceanside with Mr. and Mrs. Aitchison and Tom driving down for the weekends.

The week before the start of school the family visited in Los Angeles at the home of her sister and family Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weiss. Tom was honored on his 11th birthday with a patio barbecue and a decorated "Happy Birthday" cake. Jim, who is a senior at Palm Springs High School, has won many honors for his art work.

During the summer Mrs. Bertha Butler visited in San Francisco with her sister, Mrs. Clara Murphy, who plans on an extended visit with Mrs. Butler this season.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Watkins last week were friends they met while vacationing at Zion National Park, Mr. and Mrs. John Barrett of Long Beach. The Watkins and their son Charles returned Saturday night from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Gillgren, who were their neighbors before moving to Vista.

Mrs. Warren (Freda) Thomas is back as nurse to Dr. William Harrison after a summer spent visiting with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Snyder at their home in Kennewick, Wash., where she spent a month. Mrs. Thomas spent the rest of the summer at Lake Arrowhead.

After spending the summer in Texas, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Levin have returned to spend another season at the Sun Glow Apartments. Here for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Hansen of Lomita.

In celebration of the ninth birthday of Mike Colglazier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Colglazier, Mike and his guests enjoyed a few rounds of Puts-Putt golf in Palm Springs, returning to the Colglazier home for birthday cake, ice cream and punch. Wishing Mike "Happy Birthday" were Bruce Blauvelt, Jeffrey Kemp, Bradley Allen, Chuckie and Ricky Buresh and Mike's younger brother Pat.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrien Keller returned last week after spending two months at their cabin in the Rocky Mountains at Red Lodge, Mont., the northeast entrance to Yellowstone. While there they drove to Billings, Mont. (her home town), to visit with her sister, Mrs. C. E. Stroup and her brothers, Robert and David Freeman. In Billings they met Paul and Mildred Clark, who were vacationing in Montana. Mr. and Mrs. Keller, who were in Europe last season, plan on spending this season at their home on Grandview.

Pioneer resident Mrs. Emma Hammill, who spent the winters in Cathedral City for 10 years before making her permanent home here in 1947, spent the summer visiting relatives in Hudson, Wis., where she attended the wedding of her granddaughter and in Martin City, Mont., at the ranch home of her daughter, Francine Melrose. On July 8th a family reunion at the ranch celebrated Mrs. Hammill's 85th birthday.

Warner and Flora Otto returned to the desert last week following a six-week vacation in Hermosa Beach, Hollywood and Big Bear. Saturday they reopened their realty office for another season.

Starting their ninth year of social meetings, the Talleyettes met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Ernest (Doris) LeClair. Following an evening of canasta, summer experiences were related as the hostess served hot blueberry turnovers, ice cream and coffee. Attending were Twila Hand, Harriet Colglazier, Eleanor Donahue, Ruby Hammer, Pauline Ridley, Rena Estel, and Euleata Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boyd returned last week from a two-week visit in Springfield, Mo., at the home of his father, William Boyd Sr. Driving back through Oklahoma and Texas they experienced the approach of Hurricane "Carla," missing it by one day. While in Springfield they visited the Lake Of The Ozarks.

A cool summer was enjoyed by Mrs. Dorcas Powell and her daughter Sonja. Dorcas reopened her salon here for the eighth season on Sept. 18th.

Janet Welsh, who spent two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Welsh, following a summer in Laguna, left Sunday to start her senior year at UCLA. Her brother Tim was one of three students awarded an instrumental scholarship to ISOMATA from Palm Springs High School where he plays clarinet with the band and orchestra.

Spa City Men Attend Civil Defense Meet

BANNING — Palm Springs City Manager Dan J. Wagner and Councilman Ted B. McKinney attended a county-wide civil defense planning and coordination meeting here Tuesday afternoon.

The meet, called by acting county CD Director Sheriff Joe Rice, is designed to speed adoption of a uniform program for civil defense planning. Sheriff Rice told county supervisors in late August that independent planning and programming prevented quick action and effective cooperation by the county's incorporated and unincorporated areas.

Wagner and McKinney attended the dedication ceremonies for a new civic administration center here Wednesday morning. Wagner was official representative for Palm Springs Mayor Frank Bogert.

Tram Engineer Begins Project

T. T. Mackenzie, resident engineer here for the Tudor Engineering Co., general engineering consultants to the San Jacinto Tramway Authority, began his mammoth project here Monday with enthusiasm.

"I think this is going to be the most interesting assignment yet," the soft-spoken engineer told The Desert Sun after he completed an all-day field trip on the site Tuesday.

Engineer Mackenzie arrived here Monday afternoon, and went into consultation with fellow project planners. He came to the desert job after four years' work on the giant San Francisco rapid transit project. Previously, he had spent six years on a job spanning the Columbia River in Oregon.

Up by Copter

Tuesday, Mackenzie flew by helicopter to the 8,515 foot level for a conference with Bid Spicer, general superintendent here for the L. E. Dixon Construction Co., and officials of interested state agencies.

"I forgot to put on my cap and got sunburned up there," he reported ruefully.

The engineering project for the job, set on construction contract at 22 months, can't now be computed. Mackenzie has leased a home here, and will move in next week with his wife, Barbara. An engineer son is in Portland, Ore.

"The tramway will be double-cabled, both for traction and track cable," Mackenzie explained. The equipment, to be designed in Switzerland, will include 80-passenger cars, the largest in the United States, and possibly the largest in the world.

"Passing points are to be built close to a tower, to eliminate the million-in-one possibility that two cars — going up and coming down — could bang together in a wind gust," Mackenzie reported. He emphasized that "every possible safety device is incorporated in the planning for this job." Closeness to the mountain will prevent any possible duplication of the recent Alps tragedy, when a jet plane flew under a cable run, snapping a pulling cable.

Mackenzie talked Tuesday with personnel in the Albert Webb Associates surveying crew which is doing a critical survey for planning of support towers, horizontal and vertical clearances, and catenary cable clearances. The catenary, Mackenzie reported, is the line of curve of the cable.

"The level of ascent and descent will actually seem pretty mild on this tramway, despite the rate of incline," Mackenzie reported. He explained that he had taken one helicopter flight recently, and dropped 2,000 feet in a minute on the return flight.

"The gentleman with me was in his late 60s — and he didn't think it was anything at all," Mackenzie smiled.

Palm Desert Chamber Party Set

PALM DESERT — The first outdoor Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce Homecoming party will mark the eighth annual edition of the fall fete here Sat., Oct. 28.

Don McNeilly, chamber manager and head of the homecoming planning group, told The Desert Sun the outdoor party would be western-styled, complete with corral. It will be staged in the Welcome-Kite Plaza, scene of the chamber's spring "Roaring Twenties" party.

Songstress Martha Tilton and western-keyed baritone Curt Massey have been signed to entertain. "Country" Washburn and his orchestra will play for dancing on a kind-sized dance floor, McNeilly announced.

Dillon Joins Law Firm

Edward T. Dillon, lawyer, test pilot, and member of the Palm Springs Airport Commission, has joined the law firm of Thompson and Colegate. It was announced today by F. Gillar Boyd.

Dillon will join the firm as of Oct. 1, ending some six years in semi-retirement.

A graduate of Stanford University Law School, Dillon was admitted to the California Bar in 1933, and practiced law as counsel for the California Building and Loan Commissioner from 1934-37.

At the beginning of World War II and for four years, he flew as a test pilot for Lockheed Aircraft, testing war planes.

Following the war, Dillon re-entered his law practice and started the firm of Dillon and Dundan. In 1955 he came to Palm Springs.

He has been a professional pilot for 30 years, and today owns his own airplane, a Beechcraft tied down at Palm Springs Airport.

At one time he was director of Home Savings and Loan in Los Angeles, and of the Los Angeles Soap Co.

Last year Dillon was appointed by Mayor Frank Bogert to serve on the Palm Springs Airport Commission.

Burning Permits In City Limits Until Oct. 31

Burning permits within Palm Springs' incorporated limits will be continued until Oct. 31.

A fire department spokesman said that "as far as we know now" the Oct. 31 date would be the final date for permitted fires. A question of the official burning permit closing date was raised Tuesday after a trash fire on South Palm Canyon Drive drew comments from neighbors on homes built at higher levels in the area.

Don't light outdoor fires on windy days.

sylvania State University for a nine-week training and selection course on Oct. 14, and after this training and her acceptance, she will serve in the Federation of Malaya.

Miss Bray, although born in Oklahoma, has been a resident of California all her life, and for the past eight years has resided with her parents on Highway 111 in the Indian Wells area. She graduated from Chapman's College in Orange in June, and in July made her application for the Peace Corp.

During her training she will be taught the language and customs of the country in which she will serve, and during the training period, will put in a total of 60 hours a week.

If she is sent to Malaya, she will live at the level of native teachers and draw a salary of about $70 a month.

She is the eldest of four children — two brothers and a sister. Her sister, Sylvia, entered Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo this year, and of her brothers, Patrick is at Coachella Valley High School and Mike is attending Palm Desert elementary school.

Elks Honor Therieau Tonight

A special program scheduled by Elks Lodge 1905 will honor Eugene Therieau on his elevation to municipal judge tonight in the Lodge Hall at 67-537 S. Highway 111, Palm Springs.

Judge Therieau, who has been serving as a justice judge, will become Palm Springs Municipal Court Judge with activation of the new court Oct. 2.

Attorney Henry V. Cleary will be chairman for a program in which Superior Judges Hilton McCabe and Merrill Brown are to make a presentation to Judge Therieau. He in turn is to make presentation to Pat Cohen of his jewel of office as district deputy grand exalted ruler of the California South District of Elks.

Also scheduled is initiation of a class of 14 new members, which according to Harry C. Bogart, past exalted ruler, will be named for Judge Therieau.

MERCURY-COMET for 1962 has significant rear-end styling changes but continues to offer the same features that have made it a strong competitor in the compact market. The Comet name has been altered to reflect its membership in the broadened Mercury line for 1962. Rear fins have been tapered down and new taillights are set in pairs on a bright metal applique. A new spear molding distinguishes the side appearance.

MORE MODELS FOR COMET

The 1962 Comet will offer greater model selection and significant styling changes as it joins the Mercury family line.

The new model of the compact, now designated the Mercury Comet, has extensive changes in the rear appearance and includes a new Custom series increasing the number of body styles from five to nine.

The Mercury name in 1962 encompasses three car lines of the Lincoln - Mercury Division. They are the big-sized Monterey, a new standard-sized car to be called the Meteor which will bow later in the year, and the compact Comet.

"The new Comet retains its own basic identity even though it becomes a full-fledged member of the Mercury line this year," Bill Podell, general manager of Palm Springs Lincoln - Mercury-Comet said.

Styling changes distinguishing the new Comet include a metal applique on the lower rear panel and two circular taillights on each side. In place of last year's high canted fins, the new rear fenders are tapered downward.

In the front, the car has a new aluminum grille. The familiar side appearance is modified by a full-length molding strip which sweeps low to the rear. A new instrument cluster with easier-to-read instruments and improved illumination are part of the interior styling changes.

"Comet has more than kept pace with the expanding compact market by emphasizing value, appearance, economy, ride and comfort. These features are improved in 1962 and are being made available in even more models," Podell said.

Two and four-door sedans and two and four-door station wagons are offered in both the standard Mercury Comet series and in the new Custom series. The ninth entry is the S-22, which has distinctive bucket seats, console seat divider and luxury interior trim.

All Comet models for 1962 are equipped with the advanced sound package which was first introduced on the S-22 last April.

Glass fiber hood insulation, triple-layer floor insulation, and factory-applied undercoating are part of the 45 pounds of sound deadening materials which also have been added to the dash panel, wheelhouses, sides and luggage compartment. Sound deadening materials are nearly doubled from the amount used on previous models and make the Comet's sound characteristics even more comparable to bigger cars.

Newly developed 2-ply tires are standard equipment on all models. The 2-ply tires are equivalent in strength to 4 plys but run cooler at turnpike speeds.

John Q. Lost This Round

In the welter of new state laws which went into effect last weekend there is one which will affect the household budget in many a family. It is a law aimed at so-called loss leaders, articles advertised at cost or less than cost by stores and markets to attract customers.

Naturally, as there is no profit on these items which serve as a lure, the stores have been placing a limit on sale of these articles to any one customer. This new state law prohibits the placing of that limit.

Officials believe this law will eliminate the practice of advertising items at cost or below, for if there is no limit to the amount which may be sold to one person, what is to prevent a rival merchant from loading up on these cheap items and reselling at a profit to himself?

The state law is not the only threat to low-priced articles. A federal law has been proposed to prohibit "below-cost sales" going even further than the state law which does not ban them but hamstrings them with the no limit provision. The National Association of Food Chains is vigorously opposing the new federal law on the grounds that it is anti-competitive and in opposition to the public interest, among other objections.

Pricing policies which are "destructive of free competitive enterprise" already are illegal under the long-established Robinson-Putman Act, the association points out, and additional legislation is not needed. It is also pointed out that the definition of "unreasonably low cost" is so vague as to make compliance almost impossible because overhead costs vary substantially from one market to another.

Pricing in the retail food industry is a complex operation based on a philosophy of large volume, rapid turn-over and low margins. If a retailer wrongly estimates volume of turn-over, he may wind up with a loss instead of a profit. Therefore, the state law which may eliminate "loss leaders" by prohibiting limitation of sales and the proposed federal law banning them altogether, will probably tend to increase prices.

And who will suffer with the lessening of competition?

The consumer and her household food budget.

Well, It's Good Exercise

News of a depressing nature seemingly isn't confined to the dispatches from abroad detailing the worsening world situation, the chances that the cold war may turn hot any day, aerial tragedies, the highway toll and violence on all fronts.

Even the news of developments on the domestic scene can make the householder turn pale and wonder what will happen next to his weekend surcease from struggling to make ends meet.

Take, for instance, that little item the other day about a new grass seed that has been perfected in Canada. It is guaranteed to sprout within 48 hours and provide a thick green cover for the lawn within a few days.

If so, the man of the house whose duty it is to keep the outside neat and trim, can say goodbye to his weekly efforts to break 100 on the golf course. He'll be piloting a law mower instead.

Other Editors

(Memphis Commercial Appeal)

The steel industry has been warned by 10 Democratic senators against raising prices this fall, when contract wages go up.

Orville Freeman, secretary of agriculture, has made public a letter attacking proposed bread price rises.

These are opening events in an Administration campaign to put the lid on prices, in the view of the magazine U.S. News & World Report.

For law the campaigners' principal equipment is the statutes against monopoly and conspiracy, when the big companies change their prices at the same time.

For economics there are hopes that more efficient machinery and bigger markets will cover most of the increasing costs.

For overall motive there is the possibility that a halt in the price rise will make it easier to slow down the pattern of wage increases. At least steady prices would take away some of the fuel feeding the fires under the pressures for more pay.

It seems to us the Administration has chosen two products in which pressure has some prospect of obtaining results. Competition of foreign steel has softened the industry push for higher prices. Wheat is only a little fraction of bread cost, and the bakers' talk of a price rise is based on a support price change a year away.

If these two industries back away from higher price ideas, more Administration pressure on other fronts is to be expected, with increasing emphasis on the consumer in contrast to the producer.

Remember When . . .

SEPTEMBER 21, 1951

Under leadership of Stanton Griffing, parents and pupils in Palm Springs High School were studying plans to form a Parent-Teachers association council.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Shea of Rancho Mirage were hospitalized in Riverside as result of an automobile crash near Los Angeles which seriously injured both.

SEPTEMBER 21, 1941

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Knapp reported the discovery of a valuable deposit of Tungsten ore in Magnesia Canyon, 11 miles south of Palm Springs.

SEPTEMBER 21, 1931

Katherine Finchy, head of the local school, returned from an airplane trip east to resume her duties here. The school bus which transports local pupils to Banning High School is well filled each day.

Heavy summer rains give promise of a green desert this season, old-timers say and the wild flower showing will be more abundant.

Ready for Big Splash

Dear Abby . . .

. . . by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I was warned through a second party, that my friend's 7-year-old daughter was a little thief, and that I should keep an eye on her since she visits with her parents in my home frequently. I watched the child like a hawk and, sure enough, I saw in her pocket several items that belonged to me. I felt like a heel telling her parents about it, but I really told them for the good of their child. I realize now that it wasn't my place to tell them. I have lost two friends, and gained a nickname. It's—

BIG MOUTH
DEAR BIG: I disagree. Perhaps you lost two friends, but you were big-hearted, not big-mouthed. Your motives in telling the parents were pure. They should have thanked you for the information, and then set about to find out what their child was missing that made her steal.

DEAR ABBY: What does it mean when a man wears his wedding ring on his little finger?

CURIOUS
DEAR CURIOUS: It probably means that he has gained so much weight he can't get it on the other finger.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell the wives of traveling salesmen not to worry about the traveling salesmen jokes they hear. I have driven a taxi for 16 years, and I have hauled thousands of traveling salesmen from airports to hotels. The number who are looking for a good time are very few. Most of them are so beat up from traveling all they want is to get to their hotel and go to sleep. I have found that salesmen and representatives are interested in their families first, and their jobs second. When they start a conversation they don't ask me where they can meet a cute chick, they ask where to buy gifts for their wives and children. And they talk about their homes, families and hobbies. They travel because that's the way they can make the best living. And don't let anybody tell you different.

CAB DRIVER
DEAR ABBY: I love to eat and I look it. I guess you could say that I am just plain FAT! Will jumping rope help me to lose weight?

FAT
DEAR FAT: Yes, if you SKIP desserts!

CONFIDENTIAL TO KAREN:
"Cheap" talk is expensive.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and include a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Abby answers ALL mail.

This Side of The Sun

By R. F. 'Phat' Graettinger

Progress is great but you've seen nothing yet,
They say that soon we'll all be our own jet.

Read an article this week that could mean that in another decade there won't be traffic jams on our streets and that we can forget trying to figure out a mass transportation plan.

THIS ARTICLE predicted that by 1971 the busy executive won't have to gulp scalding coffee and sprint for his bus or train en route to his office downtown or woo hypertension negotiating the freeways.

All he'll have to do is buckle on his rocket belt, walk out to the front lawn, press a gadget or two, and take off for his office being his own jet.

THAT PRESENTS a fascinating picture for these wide open desert spaces, everybody on his own jet. The busy banker, realtor, merchants or even the newspaperman, always provided he could afford it, can live far out, put on his rocket belt, and head across country for downtown Palm Springs and his office.

No boulevard stops, signal lights (if we ever get them), no looking for a parking spot. Just zoom into the office, hang up the rocket belt on the coat hanger and go to work.

SHORT TEST flights of the individual jet have already been made. I read. Propelled by a small jet engine, individuals have flown as far as 300 feet, 30 feet up and at 30 m.p.h. The way science and invention are booming, it probably won't be long before we'll see advertisements for the jet belts in newspapers and magazines with various claims for altitude, speed and maneuverability.

THAT'S ALL GOOD except that, always being the one to look at both sides of the picture, I can see new problems. There'll have to be laws or there'll be chaos 30 feet up. Flight patterns so that two guys won't crash converging toward the same roof top entrance. By the way, that means that our buildings will have to be redesigned to provide for entering from the top.

IMAGINE a sky full of men, happily jetting along at 30 per. Then along comes some teen-age hotrodder, trying to create a personal sonic boom. Scattering the more sedate executives, heading for office.

Supposing some butter-fingered jet commuter dropped his cigar lighter. The person it hit would know he had been bashed. Life is certainly becoming more complex each day.

Today's Need Is for System of World Law

HOLMES ALEXANDER has left on a brief European vacation. During his absence a number of prominent and interesting guests will contribute columns.

By U. S. Senator
Stuart Symington, D., Mo.

WASHINGTON—Today we face the paradox of more troops marching into more places, at the same time the people of the free world search desperately to find the right road to peace; and all of us know that both our security and well-being will be affected by that search.

Holmes Alexander has afforded me this means of stating my beliefs.

I believe the right road lies in a world rule of law, which may be hard for some of us to grasp and understand, an intangible concept, one that cannot be seen streaking through the sky, or diverting the flow of rivers, or furnishing light to our cities.

To understand the possibilities of such a development requires the patience of impatient people, and many years of training for the untrained.

'Servant of the People'

We who are free know that Government should be the servant of the people. But the Communists hold, as their basic tenet, that each citizen must be subservient to the will of the State. Conformity is required — disagreement not allowed.

One has often heard it said that the greatest inheritance of the English-speaking peoples is the common law tradition.

Part of that tradition was welded into the American scene during our formative years; and our great founding charter, the Constitution, translated that tradition into a viable framework of government.

In the United States and a few other free countries, this tradition has resulted in protection to a degree found nowhere else on earth: protection of our individual rights and liberties, our property rights and our domestic tranquility.

In the past, most of us have taken these rights for granted. As Communism now increases its sway over more millions of people, however, the advantages of living under law become a more practical matter for every free citizen.

Support Aspirations

These advantages are the hope which we offer the world; not promises or vague plans, but the actual experience of many centuries.

To be sure, there are the immediate aspiration of less fortunate nations for material benefits — roads, dams, power lines, schools — and we should and have supported these aspirations.

But the long-range goals of these people are also our own goals — a better life, greater human dignity, and above all, individual freedom.

To that end, in our dealings with other countries, we should underscore the need for an effective legal system; and this is especially true in the newly emerging nations.

We must present to them that the history of the world shows rule by law has been the only method for the attainment of an orderly society of individuals; and therefore it is the one real hope for a peaceful society of nations.

The efforts of the governments and the people of the free world should be twofold: continue to perfect the existing legal systems within our own countries; and increase research and study in the area of world law. Through such study we will be able to present more effectively the need for this tool in the construction of world understanding.

Reason Ahead of Reaction

We Americans are the rightful leaders in this worthy cause. Our own experience verifies the fact that a rule of law puts what is right ahead of what is expedient — and places the wisdom of reason ahead of reaction to emotion.

Those experiences show what can happen when judgment of the courts replaces the resort to war — when law, instead of force, governs the affairs of nations.

Only through some form of a world rule of law can we achieve the passionate desire of those who now live in this nuclear space age — peace, both lasting and just.

We Don't Need Public Cover on Atom Tests

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — The decision to keep press and public away from the new series of nuclear tests on which the nation has embarked at Yucca Flat, Nev., is a sensible one — times being what they are. It's enough for the world to know they are taking place. Khrushchev's world will be impressed. The free man's world will be reassured, and must feel grateful that these tests will not add to the radiation levels.

Atomic tests in Nevada and out in the Bikini - Eniwetok area suffered from over-exposure. The sheer number of reporters, cameramen, TV and radio people attracted to them, the razz-mattazz of Las Vegas (where we all stayed while waiting for the Yucca tests), gave these tests a carnival air wholly out of keeping with the moustache weapons themselves.

Induced some pretty frothy writing seizures, too. I remember starting one news story something like this: "Like a fiery belch from hell, a giant atomic bomb flamed over the Nevada test site at dawn today."

When a test would be delayed for a day or a week, or weeks, the bored newsmen, technical people and even a Nobel physicist or two would fall into the Las Vegas routine. The hotel and casino people made them most welcome, being deeply interested in science.

We formed a group named the Atombombwatchers, with a strong ticket of officers — myself as president and Zsa Zsa Gabor as vice president. Gives you an idea of how lightly a lot of us took the whole pattern of fission and fusion.

Private Force Is Tops
Speaking of keeping people out, one of the best trained and least-publicized police forces in the U.S. is Pan American's Security Police Force at Cape Canaveral.

The 370-man outfit, headed by Harry Christensen, former FBI agent, is responsible for the overall security, plant protection and control of restricted areas within the cape's 17,000 acres. It numbers in its ranks seven former New York Cops.

It patrols the reservation's 85 miles of roads around the clock, guards the gates, combs the 25 miles of waterfront along the Atlantic and, to the west, the Banana River. When a missile arrives at the cape, a detail of these officers is assigned to stay with it until it is launched. They guard it through its period of assembly, accompany it to its pad, watch the technicians who get it ready for its short, fiery voyage, and "secure" the area during the final minutes of the countdown — before finding safe hiding places themselves.

If an astronaut's booster malfunctions on the pad or immedately after lift-off, and he is deposited on the reservation itself, he'll be reached swiftly and surely because security policemen have painstakingly charted every foot of the desolate area of swamps and bogs.

Kibitzers Arrested

If a kibitzer manages to get through to the area of a launching pad, for the thrill of it, he can be arrested by these police. They can issue "tickets" to motorists for a dozen reasons. They have an amazingly sharp eye for intruders, though 6,000 vehicles carrying twice as many workers enter and leave the cape every working day. They must recognize 68 different types of official badges, and spot possible counterfeiters.

People go to fantastic extremes to crash Cape Canaveral. Motorists try to brush past inspection points. "Fishermen" who claim to be lost, come ashore not far from the towering gantries and their precious missiles. There are several cemeteries on the reservation, dating from a pre-space-minded era. Patrolmen must accompany all who come to visit the graves of departed relatives, and usher them out again.

The work all these men must do on the target ranges has come in handy at times. A Polaris once went haywire and plunged back into the reservation. Its exploding fuel started a huge brush fire that drove many diamond-back rattlesnakes into open areas and on to roads. Patrolmen had to go after them with their 45's. Takes all types to make up a space program.

LETTER

To the Editor

The Desert Sun

We're incessantly harping on the "Litter Bugs" and only about once a year or less do we slant a few puny castigations in the direction of the real scourge of our scenic (?) Highway 111.

These insidious transgressions stand 10 or 15 feet high and 20 or 30 feet long, leering down at us in garish colors, not satisfied with their daytime obnoxiousness, but donning a reflective paint to further harass us in the dark hours.

I think if a concerted organization of boycott was waged against the perpetrators of this hideous malpractice, we might accomplish what our elected candidates seem reluctant to legislate. How about it?

Sincerely,
Frank H. Dunn

TELEVISION NOTES

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bill Dana, writer-comedian who got his big boost on the old Steve Allen program on NBC with his Jose Jimenez character, will be back as head writer and occasional performer when Steve starts his new series on ABC next fall. During the year that Allen's show was off the air, Dana made financial hay by putting Jose on long-playing discs for Kapp Records and touring the nightclub circuit.

The "Peter Gunn" private-eye series, which caused quite a commotion in music circles because of its distinctive jazz background score during two seasons on NBC and one on ABC, is through as a network show, but Official Films has acquired the syndication rights of the once-used episodes and will have them in wide circulation during the new season.

It probably won't make a never-mind to the viewers, but they'll be sharing in a revolutionary new concept in location and studio sound recording when they look at ABC's "The New Breed," a new one-hour series scheduled for next season. It was developed by the Samuel Goldwyn Studios in Hollywood and is a super-light portable magnetic film recorder weighing only 51 pounds with mixer-amplifier. It is hoped it eventually will replace the much heavier and cumbersome equipment now in general use.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

Cultural Trend In Belly Dancing

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI)—It was my research assistant, young Dr. Zhivago, who first called my attention to the current upswing in abdominal coreography, better known as belly dancing.

"This is something you should investigate," he said, winking one of his little pig-like eyes. "It's getting to be a big thing in Washington."

I usually can depend on Dr. Zhivago to keep me abreast of cultural trends, but in this case my first impulse was to reject his suggestion. Since he is still at an impressionable age, I figured he had fallen prey to one of those promoters who occasionally try to revive burlesque.

As it turned out, however, he had detected a genuine stirring of interest in an ancient Mid-Eastern art form, which was born in the cradle of Western civilization and possibly should have stayed there.

Enjoy Steady Patronage
In the past few months, three clubs featuring authentic Greek-style belly dancing have opened in the U.S. capital and all are enjoying steady patronage. Perhaps "steady" is not the word I'm searching for, but at any rate the clubs are well attended.

A goodly percentage of their clientele is drawn from Embassy Row. Members of the diplomatic colony, particularly those from Mediterranean countries, go there seeking a homelike atmosphere.

The clubs also have caught on with the native population, and this has given them an atmosphere which a local newspaper described as that of "a slightly disorganized block party."

I should explain that the patrons themselves do not belly dance. The navel terpsichoreans are all professionals, fresh off the boat from Asia Minor.

Between floor shows, however, the customers leave their tables and perform impromptu dances to the rhythm of Grecian folk music played on the bouzouki and the oud, which are stringed instruments imported from Athens.

Bunch of "Oud Balls"
This might give you the impression that they are a bunch of "oud balls," but Dr. Zhivago insists that some of our most refined citizens are doing it.

In fact, things have reached the point where the local musicians union felt obliged to complain to the U.S. Immigration Service about allowing bouzouki players to enter this country.

Immigration officials checked around and discovered that many of the belly dance accompanists were born in the United States. Possibly they learned to play stringed instruments in Athens, Ga.

As I understand it, the belly dance renaissance was inspired by a Greek movie called "Never on Sunday." In the course of my research I went to see the movie, and my reaction was "never again."

MEETING WITH TOP Republicans, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon discussed political conditions as preliminary to deciding whether to run for Governor of California. With him at San Francisco meeting are, from left: Joseph Martin, Jr., San Francisco, National Committeeman; John Krehbiel, Los Angeles, Chairman, State Central Committee; Nixon and Caspar Weinberger, Vice Chairman. Latest word is that Nixon will make a formal announcement Sept. 27. Meanwhile, a monkey wrench has been thrown into the machinery of Nixon supporters by former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, left, who announces he will be a candidate and will not pull out even if Nixon does run.

Noted Golfer Oliver Passes

ED (Porky) OLIVER

Cancer Claims Linksman Noted For Humor, Wit

WILMINGTON, Del. (UPI)—Ed (Porky) Oliver was mourned by pro and duffer alike today in the world of golf he brightened for 20 years with sparkling play and a matching wit.

The 46-year-old Oliver died Wednesday in Memorial Hospital after a 16-month battle with cancer which had reduced him to a shadow of the round, 240-pounder who sprinkled the pro trail with laughs and buffoonery while getting his share of tournament victories.

Although Oliver was a member of the U.S. Ryder Cup team three times and won several important championships, the big ones always got away from him. But he looked upon these setbacks philosophically.

"Money is important, but without laughs life just wouldn't be worth the battle," he used to say.

Tides Him Over
Oliver's jolly nature helped tide him over two operations and other ailments which set in during his long struggle against cancer. His concern was mostly for his wife, Clara, and their four children.

"They're all taking it fine, taking it in stride," Oliver would say. About yourself. "You just have to pray and have faith," he would say.

Oliver learned at the outset of his career to accept a twist of fate with a shrug of the head.

His biggest setback occurred in the 1940 National Open in Cleveland when he finished in a tie with Lawson Little and Gene Sarazen. Oliver, however, was disqualified from taking part in the playoff because he had started his final round 22 minutes early. Porky cried in the clubhouse but quickly recovered his poise and sense of humor.

Just Misses Again
In 1946, Oliver finished second to Ben Hogan in the PGA championship and was runner-up to Julius Boros in the National Open. In 1953, Hogan defeated him in the Masters.

The 5-foot-10 Oliver loved to eat and toured the circuit in a station wagon equipped with two well stocked refrigerators. His appetite often was compared with Babe Ruth's. It was typical of Oliver to down a few hot dogs, hamburgers and several bottles of soda pop as a between-meals snack.

Oliver always was among the top 10 golfers during his prime.

On Sept. 30, Sam Snead and Bill Collins will play an exhibition at the Green Hills golf course here for the Porky Oliver Fund, a trust to provide an education for the four Oliver children—Ed III, Robert, John, and Jo Ann.

Oliver Fund Idea Started at Classic

The local golfing fraternity mourned the passing of Ed (Porky) Oliver today. The popular golfer performed often here in the Thunderbird Invitational and Palm Springs was a favored spot of his for short rests between tournaments.

Oliver's popularity is attested to in the fact that it was at Palm Springs that the Oliver Fund Drive started. During last February's Classic, Milt Hicks and others suggested that a day be set aside for contributions to a fund. The popular golfer had been a cancer patient since May of 1960, and the battle has been costly to Oliver and his family. The fund idea grew from the Palm Springs start.

Indians Football Games Broadcast

Both home and road games of the Palm Springs High School Indian football team will be broadcast this fall over KCMJ, according to an announcement by station manager Pat Raymond.

First of the nine games will be beamed tomorrow night from El Centro, with broadcast time scheduled at 7:55 p.m. All succeeding games will have the same starting hour.

Play-by-play action will be called by Jerry Londo, while Bill Hesson will handle with color and other announcements.

The high school games were not broadcast last year. Following the El Centro opener, the remaining games will be broadcast direct from the field on succeeding Fridays. In order, the games are against Perris, San Jacinto, Hemet (Way), Indio (away), 29 Palms, Coachella Valley (away), Banning, and Yucaipa (away).

KCMJ is the Pim Springs CBS affiliate broadcasting on 1010 k.c.

Hodge Podgers Hit 564

Two Hodge Podgers bowled 564 series in this week's league competition at PS Lanes. Both Andy Anderson of the Industrial Electric and Fred Scarms of the Lincoln Mercury team rolled the impressive totals. Rick Scarm of the Saints and Sinners team was close behind with a 562.

High scoring distaffer was Marcy Beckerle of Mayfair No. 7 with a 420.

DODGERS EDGE CUBS IN COLISEUM FINALE

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Dodgers sighed with relief today over having ended a four-year tenure in the Coliseum as they closed out the "temporary" stand there the hard way with a 13-inning victory.

The stubborn Chicago Cubs held on until the bottom of the 13th before surrendering a 3-2 victory to the Dodgers and pitcher Sandy Koufax, who went all the way and struck out 15.

Although the Dodgers still have a mathematical chance at the pennant, Cincinnati's magic number was reduced to four when the Reds also won Wednesday night.

The 15 men Koufax struck out were the most he had fanned in a game this season and raised his total to 259, tying Christy Mathewson's mark set in 1908, the third best in league history.

Ron Fairly, on a 12-game hitting streak, singled home Wally Moon with the winning run in the 13th. Moon got on base with a single, was sacrificed to second and went to third on a passed ball.

Kisner Sinks Ace in PGA Tournament

During the recent National PGA Hole-in-One Contest, there were only two holes-in-one made in the entire country.

The first was hit by former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, and the other was credited to Barney Kisner of Indian Wells Country Club, who using his five-iron, fired a 148 yard shot to drop the ball into the fourth hole.

His partners during the play were Lew Landers, well-known producer-director of "Seahunt" and "Waterfront," Bill Schwartz, president of Dice, Inc., suppliers of all props for TV and motion pictures; and Ray Lockwood, director of the Palm Springs Boys' Club.

Angels Return to Wrigley Field for Final Home Card

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Angels, almost done with their first season in the American League, enjoyed a day off today before launching their final home stand Friday night at homer-happy Wrigley Field.

The club plays Detroit in the Friday night game and returns with the Tigers Saturday afternoon.

Tomorrow night, manager Bill Rigney's forces will be bucking Georgia Tech-Southern California college football opener in the nearby Coliseum. Since the Los Angeles Rams play the Chicago Bears in the Coliseum Saturday night, the fans' sports entertainment dollar will be sorely stretched over the weekend.

Ron Kline, an ex-Angel, won his third straight game Wednesday in pacing the Tigers to a 6-3 victory over Los Angeles in a day game at Detroit. Kline allowed seven hits.

Canadian import Ted Bowsfield lost and his record is now 7-10.

Hog Call, Butter Churn Titles Settled at Fair

POMONA (UPI)—Qualifying rounds for the California Amateur Putting Championships and a night vaudeville highlighted today's program at the Los Angeles County Fair.

Mrs. Sarah Shaffstall, 82, Cucamonga Wednesday regained her title as the fair's champion hog caller which she held in 1955. Mrs. Martha Gibson of Crestline was second among 17 contestants, some of whom called in Spanish, Japanese and Dutch.

Mrs. Toni Kramer, a Chino housewife, won the butter churning contest in 7 minutes, 13 seconds.

Norm Sherry's fifth homer of the season in the eighth inning had tied the score after Ron Santo's two-run homer in the fourth put the Cubs ahead, 2-1.

Maris Controversy Looms

Frick on Spot If Roger Hits 61 '61 Homers

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Roger Maris stands within one home run today of some share of immortality and only two within touching off baseball's greatest controversy since the famous "Merkle boner" of 1908.

The man squarely in the middle is Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick.

Frick put himself in that position last July 17 when he ruled that a player must hit more than 60 homers during his team's first 154 games to gain recognition for an all-time record.

Maris, who hit his 59th homer and barely missed equalling Babe Ruth's mark of 60 Wednesday night in the New York Yankees' 154th game, doesn't quite see it Frick's way. Neither do many others, including American League President Joe Cronin.

Makes the Rules
"He's making the rules," Maris shrugged upon being reminded of Frick's dictum.

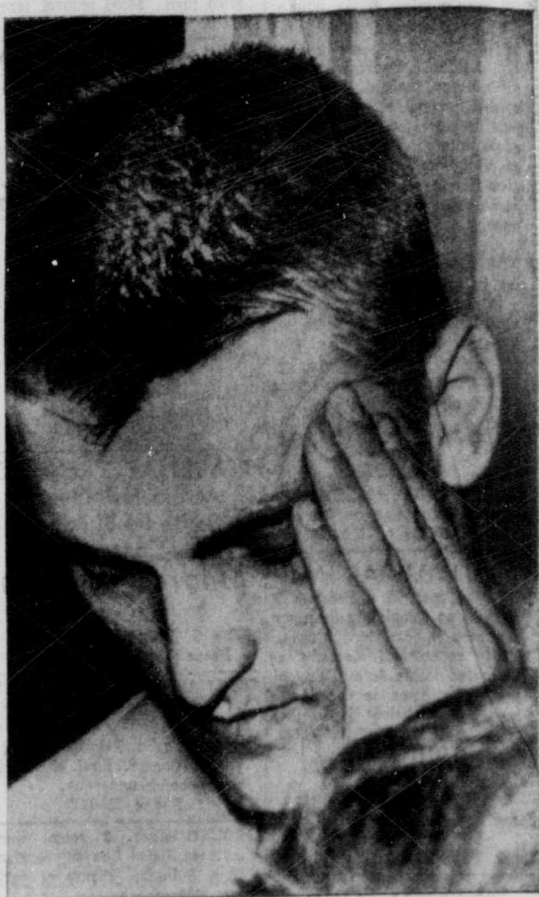

"I'll say this, though. I'm a whole lot relieved that those first 154 games are out of the way. I have a hunch I may hit a couple more now."

Many of Maris' teammates feel the same way, now that the pressure of trying to match Ruth's record within the time prescribed by Frick is finally off the 27-year-old Raytown, Mo., slugger.

"That was a foolish ruling Frick made," said one Yankee player during the height of Wednesday night's pennant-clinching celebration which followed a 4-2 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

"I think he pulled a boner," the player added. "If Maris suddenly gets hot now—and he's liable to because he'll be more relaxed—a lot of people aren't going to pay any attention to what Frick says."

Cash on Barrel
NEW YORK (UPI) — Each home team in the National Football League must pay the visiting team a minimum guarantee of $30,000 for each game.

GET-RICH-QUICK SCHEME

Forecasts Made for Western Inaugurals

By AL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — It's pigskin picking time.

And we offer today Wood's get-rich-quick scheme for the football betting season: Choose the favorite, find a sucker—and don't offer any points.

That way you may come out a winner, using this guide:

Southern California over Georgia Tech—The Trojans finally get off on the right foot. They have lettermen available at every position. Depth all around. But watch out for the speed of those Ramblin' Wrecks. By 4.

UCLA over the Air Force Academy—Bruins will miss Bill Kilmer but they are so well fixed in all other departments that they should do a mop-up job here on a club that is rebuilding. By 17.

Washington over Purdue—The Boilermakers lost 18 seniors from last year's squad, the Huskies all of their Rose Bowl starters. But Washington has 11 lettermen starters—and that may be the edge. By 5.

Texas over California—Jimmy Saxton, a 160-pound speedster is expected to make a shambles of the slow Golden Bear defense. California has an improved all-around team and it should do better than last year—but not good enough. By 13.

Tulane over Stanford—The Indians, who didn't win a game all last year, will field a green team. They haven't played anybody this year, yet, but already are hurting from injuries and again appear to be thin. By 8.

Oregon State over Syracuse—The great Terry Baker should lead the Beavers to victory in this one. Syracuse hasn't the power it displayed a couple of years ago. Oregon State well balanced, with coach Tommy Prothro installing the T-formation to help Baker in his all-around performance. By 10.

Oregon over Idaho—The Webfoots will come up with another good team. And the Vandals again are in for a bad season. By 24.

Arizona State over Wichita—Sun Devils practice witchery on Wichita. By 20.

Arizona over Colorado State—The Wildcats moving into the big time against a small-time team. By 26.

Washington State over Missouri—The upset special of the week. Passing of Mel Melin and receiving of Hugh Campbell, Jim Boylan and Pete Schenck will get the job done—if the ground game gains just a bit. By 2.

San Jose State over University of Pacific

Oregon Golf Starts Today

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—Most of the top money winners and other touring pros tee off today in the $25,000 Portland Open at the lush Columbia-Edgewater Country Club with Billy Casper Jr. trying to win it for the third time.

Using the same "good luck" caddy, 14-year-old Eddy Ellis, who rooted him to victory here in 1959 and 1960, Casper was sharp in practice rounds and was the sentimental favorite.

Gay Brewer Jr. of Crystal River, Fla., who broke the course record of 63 by three strokes in practice, and Gary Player, last year's leading money winner who tied the record, were expected to give portly Billy his toughest competition.

The pros found the 6,675-yard, par-72 Columbia River course to their liking and many practice scores were in the 60s.

Doug Sanders, Casper and Jay Hebert, third, fourth and fifth in the dollar derby, were on hand. Arnold Palmer was missing.

Other outstanding pros included Ken Venturi, George Bayer, Jack Fleck, Leonel Hebert, Marty Furgol, Mike Souchak and PGA champion Jerry Barber.

Laver Upset in Bid for Pacific Southwest Title

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Two of the top four seeded foreign players in the 35th annual Pacific Southwest Tennis Championships were knocked out of the tourney at the Los Angeles Tennis Club Wednesday.

The big upset was by 33-year-old Hugh Stewart who defeated Australian Rod Laver, the No. 2 seeded foreign player, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

Stewart saw action again today, joining Jackie Douglas in a doubles match against Mike Sangster and Roger Taylor of England.

Laver's teammate, Roy Emerson, the top-seeded foreign entry, beat Norm Perry, formerly of UCLA, in straight sets, 6-3, 6-1, to join Stewart in the quarter-final round.

Other results: Mike Sanster, England, beat Bill Bond, La Jolla, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3; Jackie Douglas, formerly of Stanford, beat Alan Lane, Australia, 6-4, 6-3; Vladimir Petrovic, former Yugoslavian, beat Ramsey Earnhart, University of Southern California, 6-0, 6-6; Larry Nagler, UCLA, defeated Bruce Campbell, 4-6, 7-5, 6-3; and Allen Fox, UCLA graduate, lost to Antonio Palafox, Mexico, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Darlene Hard, Long Beach, beat Carole Loop, Arcadia, in a featured match in women's singles, and Dorothy Cheney, Santa Monica, upset Billie Jean Moffitt, Long Beach, 6-1, 3-6.

GRID HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK

Well, where better to start looking for headline football attractions than in the Southland! The Mississippi Rebels, No. 2 team in the nation last year — out-ranked only by Iowa in the Harmon ratings, play host to the Arkansas Razorbacks. 8th-rated Arkansas is an 11-point underdog to powerful Mississippi.

4th-ranked Kansas, losers only to Syracuse and Iowa last season — on the playing field, that is — tackle Texas Christian in Fort Worth. It will be the Jayhawkers by 14 points.

Last year, Alabama beat Georgia in the opener, 21-6. This year the script will only be slightly changed . . . the winner again, Alabama . . . the score, much closer. 10th-rated Alabama is just 2 points stronger than the 1961 Bulldogs.

Runner-up in the Southwest Conference last year, Rice will nip Louisiana State by 5 points in another thriller. Rice was ranked No. 9 by The Harmon Forecasts last year.

The Boiler-Boys from Purdue are cast in the role of avengers as they meet the Washington Huskies, conquerors of Minnesota in the Rose Bowl. Purdue, in spite of four losses and a tie last fall, ended in the 11th spot in the rankings. Washington . . . pre-bowl and "Schlorrdt - less" . . . were rated Number 17. This year: Purdue rivets the Huskies by one point in a real intersectional grudge battle.

Washington State will be a barometer of Missouri's 1961 power Saturday. The Tigers, ranked 5th in the country last year, will whip the Cougars by 21 points.

Harmon's forecasting average for the first week of the 1961 football season: 69 right, 19 wrong, and 2 ties for a starting .784 percentage.

Syracuse and Oregon State tangle in Portland, Oregon, this Saturday. Just how "wide" location-wise can an intersectional game get? Wide or not, the Orangemen from Syracuse are 12-point favorites over the Beavers.
